

Review of the Street Trading Policy and Application Guidelines

South Gloucestershire Council is currently reviewing its Street Trading Policy, and is keen to receive the views of local residents and organisations on the current policy and the proposed changes. The draft policy and guidelines can be viewed at: www.consultations.southglos.gov.uk/consult.ti/ST19 or at local libraries and One Stop Shops

To have your say please complete this survey by 20th March 2019

Q1 How clear are the Application Guidelines on what to do in order to gain street trading consent for an event?

- Very clear
- Quite clear
- Not sure
- Not very clear
- Very unclear

Q2 If you feel the Application Guidelines are not clear, please tell us which part(s) needs to be clarified:

Q3 Should one-off community events be exempt from being classed as street trading? (Being exempt means that they do not currently have to apply for a street trading consent and pay the fee)

- Yes
- No
- Not sure

Q4 At the moment, we provide 'block consents' which allow event organisers, if they wish, to apply on behalf of all the individual trading activities, instead of requiring each trader to get their own licences. Each trader is then issued with an individual consent.

Would you prefer block consents to be kept or removed?

- Keep block consents
- Remove block consents
- Not sure / no opinion

Q5 To what extent do you agree with the proposal to extend the administration fee (in order to recover the Council's costs) so that it covers the following types of events (currently not charged for): Non-commercial car boot sales, Farmers Markets, Fetes / Carnivals and other similar community based and run events

- Strongly agree
- Tend to agree
- Not sure / no opinion
- Tend to disagree
