Dear Kath Thorne

An extra 300 new homes in Thornbury on top of the 500 already planned, would spoil the character of Thornbury. Remove the Morton Way boundary and Thornbury will sprawl. As it is, new car parks, roads and health facilities will be needed for the planned 500 new homes. Thornbury councillors should have had some say in finding the sites. Please ask the Inspector in charge of the Core Strategy not to ruin Thornbury, its unique character, once lost, can never be replaced.

Many thanks
Louise Richards
