Dear M/s Thorne

The points listed are all correct, but we would add that enough is enough.

Thornbury is not a large town and to accommodate 500 extra houses is going to be difficult enough, but another 300 is not an option mainly for the following reasons:-

- a. shops are sorely needed
- b. more schools will be a necessity
- c. can the doctors absorb any further patients?
- d. parking is at a premium
- e. congestion at times is horrendous
- f. not to mention the use of green pastures which is sacrilege

We could go on, but we are sure that this is not a good thing for Thornbury.

IT'S A LOVELY TOWN – LET'S KEEP IS LIKE THAT

Yours sincerely

JJ & JH NUTKINS
