

Ms Thorne

As we have always maintained 500 houses are too many for Thornbury, but an extra 300 on green belt is completely unacceptable.

Most of the properties will not be affordable to local young people and will be snapped up by landlords, townies and as in other areas foreign immigrant workers.

Also there will be a strain on local services, as well as a blot on the landscape!

Good luck

J & K Wilmott