

Peter Lucking – Response received 29 April

As government has cancelled the top down strategy for new houses in South Gloucestershire will the council look at reducing , or cancelling completely , plans to build houses on the green belt land between the ring road and Hambrook Lane . As you are already aware , local people from the area are against the plans because of the vast increase in the number of vehicles using the inadequate roads in the area .

Peter Lucking